

A Guide to International Joint Ventures

Ronald Charles Wolf

Kluwer Law International, The Hague, London and Boston

2nd Edition, January, 1999

Table of Contents

Preface to the 2nd Edition

Practical reasons for forming a joint venture

General guidelines when forming a joint venture

Foreign law considerations

Chapter One: Introduction

Contractual joint venture and equity joint venture

Concentrative and co-operative joint ventures

Cooperation agreements

Joint venture by merger

Joint venture by acquisition

Joint venture through a subsidiary

Sale of assets

Management joint ventures

Unincorporated joint ventures (teaming agreements)

Multijurisdictional horizontal company groups (cross border or bi-national)

Joint venture by contract

Transfer of Technology (including trade secrets)

Turn-key contracts

Franchise contracts

Distribution and Agency contracts

Definition of joint venture

Chapter Two: Letter of Intent

Introduction

Letter of intent without annexed legal documents

Essential contents of a letter of intent

Sample letter of intent and confidentiality agreement

Letter of intent with annexed legal documents in draft form

Typical legal documents with letter of intent but not joint venture agreement

Conclusion

Chapter Three: Joint Venture Agreement

Standard joint venture legal documents including joint venture agreement

Umbrella agreement

Detailed Joint Venture Agreement

Detailed topical outline (50 items)

Development of detailed topical outline (50 items)

Joint venture agreement and explanation of annexed legal documents

Chapter Four: Choosing the form of joint venture

Joint venture by merger

Joint venture through subsidiary

Joint venture by an acquisition

Sale of assets

Contractual joint venture

Management joint venture

Unincorporated joint venture (Consortium or Teaming Agreements)

Horizontal company groups

Chapter Five: Basic Clauses (1-20)

Identification of parties

Objectives of the joint venture

Assignability

Consents and approvals

Compliance with laws

Nature of the company to be formed

Capital of the company

Ordinary course of business

Access to and preservation of company records

Title to assets and schedule of encumbrances

Determination of percentage ownership of each party

Outstanding capital stock

Transfer of shares

Transferee's adherence agreement

No violation

Share structure

Voting rights

Quorum rights

Dividend policy

Qualified majority on key issues

Chapter Six: Basic Clauses (21-30)

Board of directors

Management

Financial statements

Accounting

Due diligence procedures

Environmental issues

Employee related facts

Taxes

Commissions

Disclosure

Chapter Seven: (Basic Clauses 31-50)

Material adverse change or absence of material changes

Representations and warranties

Indemnification

Opinion letter

Non-competition

Equal opportunity

Survival of the joint venture agreement

Confidentiality

Settlement of dispute mechanisms

Time limitations

Amendments

Merger or entire agreement clause

Waivers

Arbitration or court

Applicable law

Authorized signatures

Expenses and costs

Force majeure

Nationalization and privatization

Notices

Chapter Eight: Shareholders' Agreement

Introduction

Traditional topics of protection in shareholders' agreement

Specimen clauses in shareholders' agreement

Parties

Reasons for agreement

Basic rights to be protected

Basic capital structure of the joint venture

Duration of the agreement

Board of directors

Management

Finances and accounting

Dividend policy

Transfer of shares

Obligatory transfer of share

Extension to other activities

Complementary legal documents

Specific problems

Prohibition on competition

Law of the agreement

Resolution of litigation

Damages

Validity of agreement by percentage of capital held by a party

Termination

English/foreign language version

Amendments

Confidentiality

Notices

Chapter Nine: Due diligence

Introduction

Basic checklist of due diligence procedures

Sample opinion letter

Conducting procedures: authority and time scales

Post-closing issues & claims

De minimus amount & Purchase price adjustments

Disclosure letter

An analytical due diligence questionnaire for lawyers

Corporate history

Affiliates and subsidiaries

Regulatory conditions

Licenses, patents, trademarks, copyright, know-how and contracts

Management/Employees

Liabilities

Assets

Taxation

Green laws compliance

Chapter Ten: European Competition Law/ Joint Ventures

Introduction

Articles 85 & 86 of the Treaty of Rome

The European Commission Notice of 1966

Selected case examples under Article 85

Selected case examples under Article 86

Commission Notice On Agreements of Minor Importance

The Merger Regulation of 1989, As Amended 30 June 1997

Preamble to Council Regulation 1310/97

Combined Effect of Merger Regulation and Regulation 1310/97

Enlarged Jurisdiction over Joint Ventures

Commission Notice on the Notion of a Concentration (1994)

1994 Commission Notice on Concentrative and Co-operative Joint Ventures

Product Market

Geographic Market

General Aspects of Merger Regulation as Amended by Council Regulation 1310/97

Commission Notice on the Notion of Undertakings Concerned

Concentrative joint ventures not meeting Merger Regulation thresholds

Commission Notice Regarding Restrictions Ancillary to Concentrations

Non-Competition Clauses

Licenses of Industrial Property Rights and know-how Purchase and Supply Agreements

Joint Acquisition

Suggestions Concerning Distinction Between Fundamental and Ancillary Restrictions

Joint Ventures and National Laws

Conclusion

Chapter Eleven: Jurisdictional questionnaire for international joint ventures (questions)

Glossary

Select Bibliography